

BOULDER

Who says “entry-level” has to mean “sacrifice?” Giant’s Boulder features an all-new oversize steel frame and 3-inch travel suspension fork designed to handle everything nature can throw at it. The black/anthracite version features semi-slick tires, while the blue/silver version features knobby mountain-style tires.

- Supersize steel frame
- Spinner Grind 1 suspension fork with 3-inches of travel
- Shimano MegaRange 7-speed cassette
